

Angie's Savannah Guidebook

Sightseeing

Savannah Historic District

301 Martin Luther King Jr Blvd

18 locals recommend

Stroll through Savannah's Historic District, with its cobblestone streets, antebellum homes, and picturesque squares lined with oaks and fountains. It's ideal for exploring the city's rich history and architecture.

Forsyth Park

2 W Gaston St

400 locals recommend

This iconic 30-acre park is famous for its historic fountain, shaded paths, and picnic areas. A perfect spot for a peaceful afternoon or a scenic photo session.

River Street Savannah Georgia

River Street

196 locals recommend

Located along the Savannah River, this lively street offers shops, art galleries, bars, and restaurants with river views. Don't miss a stop at River Street Sweets for some local treats.

Bonaventure Cemetery

Known for its beautiful sculptures, landscapes, and moss-draped oaks, this historic cemetery is a fascinating place to explore Savannah's history and natural beauty.

City Market

219 W Bryan St

168 locals recommend

A bustling market area with local shops, art galleries, live music, and restaurants, it's a great place to experience Savannah's social scene.

The Savannah Waterfront Association

1 W River St

This scenic riverside area combines history and entertainment, featuring historic ships, a busy port, and activities like riverboat tours and historical walks.

Juliette Gordon Low's Birthplace

10 E Oglethorpe Ave

39 locals recommend

The birthplace of Juliette Gordon Low, founder of the Girl Scouts of the USA, this historic home showcases her life and legacy through informative exhibits.

Owens-Thomas House & Slave Quarters

124 Abercorn St

64 locals recommend

A museum that explores life for enslaved individuals and owners in pre-Civil War Savannah, with guided tours and thought-provoking exhibits.

Wormsloe Historic Site

Famous for its stunning oak-lined entrance, this site offers trails, picnic spots, and a glimpse into colonial history.

Telfair Museums Jepson Center

207 W York St

118 locals recommend

A group of museums including the Telfair Academy, Owens-Thomas House, and Jepson Center for Contemporary Art, each offering unique art experiences.

Cathedral of St. John the Baptist

222 E Harris St

87 locals recommend

This stunning cathedral in downtown Savannah features breathtaking stained glass and Gothic architecture, worth a visit for its beauty and peaceful atmosphere.

Chippewa Square

18 locals recommend

Known for the iconic bench scene in Forrest Gump, this square is a relaxing spot to sit and enjoy the charming surroundings.

SCAD Museum of Art

601 Turner Blvd

66 locals recommend

Part of the Savannah College of Art and Design, this museum displays contemporary art and design, with exhibits from both emerging and renowned artists.

Food scene

The Olde Pink House

23 Abercorn St

239 locals recommend

A must-visit restaurant housed in a historic mansion, serving Southern cuisine in an elegant and storied setting.

Mrs. Wilkes Dining Room

107 W Jones St

157 locals recommend

Known for its family-style Southern meals, this restaurant is a must for authentic Savannah flavors and comfort food.

The Grey

109 Martin Luther King Jr Blvd

121 locals recommend

Located in a former Greyhound bus station, this award-winning restaurant merges traditional and modern with an innovative Southern-inspired menu.

The Collins Quarter

151 Bull St

152 locals recommend

A popular brunch spot known for its coffee and unique dishes like avocado smash and short rib hash.

Tours

Savannah Ghost Tours

As one of America's most haunted cities, Savannah offers nighttime ghost tours for a spooky, entertaining look into the city's paranormal history.

Savannah Belle Boutique & Gallery

104 W Broughton St

77 locals recommend

Stop by for a tasting of local honey and learn about beekeeping. They also offer honey-infused skincare products and more.

Savannah Riverboat Cruises

9 E River St

31 locals recommend

Enjoy a riverboat cruise with views of the Savannah River and skyline, along with historical narration or even a meal onboard.